Say Reds Wish To Stir Scientists To Disobey

Many Blast Paris 'Peace' Conference

Washington, April 18—(AP)—The house un-American activities committee said today that Communists have engineered the Paris "peace" conference to stir atomic and other scientists to disobey their governments.

The Paris meeting, opening Wednesday, is one of a number of such events inspired by Communists throughout the world "as a part of a campaign against the North Atlantic defense pact," the committee said.

In a special report, it accused the communists of striving to get American atomic secrets spilled to the Russians.

It called the Paris gathering a mobilization of scientists for "civil disobedience" against free nations. "Ideological confusion" easily could "pass over into outright treason," the report declared, adding:

"If the Communists could succeed, by playing upon the notorious political naivety of physical scientists, in inciting scientists to 'strike' against their own government, or sabotage, it would be a real achievement for the Soviet fatherland."

The committee said the Scientific and Cultural Conference for World Peace held in New York during March was a forerunner of the Paris conference.

It said this New York meeting "was actually a supermobilization of the inveterate wheelhoosers and supporters of the Communist party and its auxiliary organizations."

The committee accused the "civil disobedience" angle at the New York meeting, saying: "A member of the Communist party struck the main chord of the conference in its outright advocacy of civil disobedience. Chosen for this role was Richard Boyer, who spoke openly as a member of the Communist party."

The report said: "It is by no means accidental that Richard Boyer's appeal for civil disobedience was directed to an audience which included the following atomic scientists:

"Harlow Shapley, of Harvard university; William A. Higginbotham, of the Brookhaven National Laboratory, Upton, Long Island; William C. Roberts, high altitude observatory, Colorado; Philip Morrison, of Cornell university; Victory Weiskopf, of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology; Oswald Veblen and Albert Einstein of Princeton."

Further on atom secrets, the committee declared:

"They (the Communists) would like nothing better than a repetition in the United States of the cases of the Canadian atomic scientists, Raymond Boyer and Allan Nunn, who divulged atomic secrets to the Soviet military intelligence."

Tells Lower Court To Decide Who Is To Get Gas Refund

Washington, April 18—(AP)—The supreme court today ordered a lower court to decide who should share a $2,765,205 fund posted by a gas well company while it fought a rate-cutting order.

The question is whether the money should go to local distributing firms, ultimate consumers or both.

Justice Douglas delivered the court's ruling in a case involving the Interstate Natural Gas Company, Inc. Justice Jackson wrote a concurring opinion in which Justice Burton joined. Justice Frankfurter wrote a separate concurring opinion. Justice Black also wrote an opinion concurring in part and dissenting in part. Justices Murphy and Rutledge joined in Black's opinion.

The circuit court in May, 1948 ordered these amounts distributed by Interstate:

To United Gas Pipe Line company, for the account of Memphis Natural Gas company, $344,606; to Memphis Natural Gas company, direct, $247,859; to Mississippi River Fuel Corporation, $1,484,582; to Southern Natural Gas company, $688,156.

The Federal Power Commission's 1943 order estimated refunds which these companies would make to their distributing-company customers, if the commission's contentions were upheld by the courts. The estimates were included:

By Mississippi River Fuel Corporation to Missouri Natural Gas company, $16,301; St. Louis County Gas company, $84,384; Laclede Gas Light company, $256,217; Illinois Power company, $50,065; Union Electric Company of Illinois, $7,913.

Washington, April 18—(AP)—Link-Belt Co., Chicago, Ill., today registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission the proposed sale of 11,196 shares of no par common stock.

Lay Keel For Giant 65,000 Ton Carrier

Newport News, Va., April 18—(AP)—The keel of the nation's first atomic-powered aircraft carrier, the 65,000-ton USS Essex, was laid today.

With no ceremony, the $186,000,000 super carrier emerged from the shadow of a lively battle between the navy and the air force into the substance of steel as a 15-ton bottom shell was lowered onto keel blocks by a giant derrick.

Until a small group of workmen guided the one-inch-thick steel sheet into place in the 1,000-foot building dock, there had been doubt whether the navy would be permitted to proceed with construction of the big ship.

The air force opposed the carrier as an invasion of its sole rights in the field of long-range strategic bombing.

The navy said the carrier represents no such invasion, even though the ship will be able to handle planes up to 100,000 pounds gross weight, close to that of the air force's wartime B-29 bomber.

The navy contended it should have for its aircraft of 1952 a floating platform from which they can operate.

Some $9,000,000 has been spent already on the carrier for engineering and blue prints. The request for the next fiscal year, beginning July 1, is for $43,000,000.

The carrier is scheduled for completion in 1952.

If and when the carrier is completed, her 1,090-foot flight deck will overhang both ends of the 1,000-foot dock at the plant of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock company. Her waterline beam will be 130 feet with a 190-foot maximum fixed width above the waterline.

The new carrier's flight deck, which will be greatly strengthened beyond those of existing flattops, will be of flush design. That means it will be unobstructed by the usual "island" super-structure.

New York, April 18—(AP)—A Georgia Negro who said he was trained in Moscow testified today that a Negro nation was to have been forged from America's deep south by the flames of violent revolution.

William O'Dell Nowell, a federal government employee, told a jury in the conspiracy trial of 11 top Communists that he once was a student of revolution at the feet of party leaders in Russia.

There, he said, Red army instructors schooled him in "the science of civil warfare."

Other instructors, he testified, lectured on "the violent overthrow of the capitalist system and the establishment of a proletarian dictatorship."

Out of this blood bath, Nowell said, was to come a new Negro nation, conceived in violence and dedicated to extending the communist revolution throughout the United States.

It was to extend from Virginia to the Mississippi delta, Nowell said—the "Black Belt of the South," where Communists claimed Negroes were in the majority.

Eight Persons Hurt As Elevator Drops Down Three Floors

Chicago, April 18—(AP)—Eight persons were injured today, none seriously, when an elevator dropped from a fifth floor and was caught by a safety device just below the second floor.

The accident happened in the Fine Arts building, 410 South Michigan avenue.

Police said they were told the fall resulted when the elevator brake slipped. Eleven persons were in the elevator when it fell.

Firemen removed the injured through an emergency door in the roof of the elevator. Fire Captain William McDonald said all of the elevator cables except one were broken and piled on top of the car.

ASKS COMPULSORY CAR INSPECTIONS IN STATE

Chicago, April 18—(AP)—The city council committee on traffic and public safety today recommended passage of a state law for compulsory safety lane inspections of automobiles throughout the state.

More than 100,000 out-of-town-registered motor vehicles enter Chicago each month, V. E. Gunlock, chairman of the Chicago traffic committee, told the council group.

Says Nazis Who Massacred GIs Ought To Be Killed

Washington, April 18—(AP)—Secretary of the Army Royall said today that German storm troopers who machinegunned 160 newly-captured American soldiers during the 1944 Battle of the Bulge "ought to be punished by death."

But he told the Senate armed services committee that the six Nazis sentenced to die for the massacre at Malmédy, Belgium, should go free if American prosecutors used "brutal and improper methods" to wring confessions from them.

Royall invited congress to recommend what the army should do.

It is an "undisputed fact," he said, that American soldiers and also innocent civilians were taken by the Germans and "slaughtered in cold blood in total violation of all the accepted rules of civilized warfare."

Royall said that whatever decision made will not meet with "universal approval."

"If the death sentences are commuted, there will be criticism that the field of long-range strategic bombing. The navy said the carrier represents no such invasion, even though the ship will be able to handle planes up to 100,000 pounds gross weight, close to that of the air force's wartime B-29 bomber.

2nd Lonely Hearts Slaying Linked To Mother And 2 Sons

Dover, Del., April 18—(AP)—Delaware state police today linked a second lonely hearts slaying to a twice-married mother and her two sons.

Police Colonel Herbert Barnes announced that the sons—step-brothers—signed confessions admitting the shotgun slaying of Hugo Schultz, 66-year-old Epson, N.H., chicken farmer.

The body was buried in the same pauper's grave with that of 70-year-old Wade N. Woodbridge. Later the remains were dug up, burned in an oil drum and tossed on the Dover City dump. Barnes said in quoting the confession.

The step-brothers—Robert Brennan, 16, and Raymond, 23—admitted the new slaying during an intensive police grilling today, Barnes reported.

The mother, 45-year-old Mrs. Inez Gertrude Brennan is charged with the shotgun slaying of Woodbridge. So is Robert. Raymond is accused of being an accessory.

58th Continental Congress Of DAR Opens In Capital

Washington, April 18—(AP)—The D.A.R. opened its 58th continental congress tonight with a message from President Truman saying that "grave issues face our country at home and abroad."

Mr. Truman made no mention of Soviet Russia by name but spoke out against "the encroachment of alien ideologies."

Citing the new 12-nation North Atlantic defense pact, Mr. Truman said:

"In this treaty the United States puts any would-be aggressor on solemn notice that the security of the larger community of which we are a part will be zealously guarded against any assault either on ourselves or on any of our Democratic partners."

The Connecticut courts had held that Lillian P. Rice of Woodbridge, Conn., Rice's first wife, was entitled to a widow's share of his property in the state. Rice died without leaving a will.

Hermione P. Rice, who married Rice in Nevada two weeks after he divorced his first wife, had asked the high court to declare her the widow and to throw out the claim of his first wife.

The case was the latest in a series of key decisions in divorces which Jackson said in a dissent prove that "confusion now hath made his masterpiece."

TO FIND INDUSTRIAL USES FOR FARM CROPS

Washington, April 18—(AP)—Senator Gillette (D-Iowa) announced today that he has invited Senators Lucas (D-Ill.), Aiken (R-Vt.), Holland (D-Fla.) and Young (R-ND) to serve on a Senate subcommittee to develop industrial uses for farm products.

Formation of the five-man subcommittee, with Gillette as chairman, was authorized by the Senate last week. Gillette headed a similar subcommittee during the war. It was credited with directing the synthetic rubber and commercial alcohol production programs.

Group Asks Special Handling Of Atomic Labor Disputes

Washington, April 18—(AP)—A commission appointed by President Truman recommended today a special procedure for handling labor disputes in vital atomic energy plants.

It included the creation of a new labor board, the "Atomic Energy Labor Relations Panel," which could step in as a last resort and delay a threatened strike or lockout.

The commission, headed by William H. Davis, former chairman of the War Labor board, urged that the panel be used rarely and that labor relations in the atomic industry be so far as possible—normal, voluntary, and free from government interference.

It proposed no new legislation. It came out against total outlawing of atomic strikes. But the unions and the companies in the industry would be required to continue operations—in any case urgent enough for the "labor relations panel" to enter—until 30 days after the panel had issued recommendations for a settlement.

The commission consisted of Davis, Dr. Edwin E. White of the University of Wisconsin, and Aaron Horvitz, an arbitrator in New York City.

They visited Mr. Truman today and handed him their report. He made it public and said he will give it "careful consideration."

The commission's major recommendations were:

1. That management and labor in atomic plants "wholeheartedly accept" a special responsibility to seek peaceful settlement of disputes in vital portions of the industry.

2. That the Atomic Energy commission have "absolute and final authority" on all matters of security, and that such matters not be considered proper for collective bargaining.

3. That aside from the really vital operations in the industry, all collective bargaining be carried on normally, free from governmental interference.

4. That all collective bargaining contracts in the atomic plants provide that any disputes involving the interpretation or application of the contract be settled without work stoppages—by arbitration if necessary.

5. That in critical disputes, people "at the very highest levels" of management and labor be brought into the negotiations.

One Of Two Boys, Wounded By Pistol Bullets, Succumbs

Scranton, Pa., April 18—(AP)—Five-year old Stephen Kaye died today several hours after he and his brother were found in their home with bullet wounds in their heads.

State hospital physicians said bullets from a .32 caliber pistol pierced the heads of the brothers, Kenneth Kaye, 10, is in critical condition, doctors said.

Police officials said a preliminary investigation indicated the boys were wounded accidentally while playing with a souvenir Belgian semi-automatic pistol owned by their father, Albert Kaye.

The boys' mother told police she heard Stephen cry, "Kennedy is shooting."

She ran downstairs and found Kenneth lying in a pool of blood on the kitchen floor with a pistol at his feet. A trail of blood led into an adjoining sitting room where Stephen was found.

High Court Rules Nevada Divorces May Be Overruled

Washington, April 18—(AP)—The supreme court ruled, 5 to 4, today that "quickie" divorces obtained in Nevada can be overturned by other states under certain circumstances.

Justice Jackson, one of the dissenters, protested that this makes the nation's "crazy quilt" divorce laws more confused than ever.

The majority held that Connecticut properly set aside a Reno divorce granted to Herbert N. Rice, former New Haven auto dealer who had remarried in Reno and died six months later.

The Connecticut courts had held that Lillian P. Rice of Woodbridge, Conn., Rice's first wife, was entitled to a widow's share of his property in the state. Rice died without leaving a will.

Hermione P. Rice, who married Rice in Nevada two weeks after he divorced his first wife, had asked the high court to declare her the widow and to throw out the claim of his first wife.

The case was the latest in a series of key decisions in divorces which Jackson said in a dissent prove that "confusion now hath made his masterpiece."

Four Now Jailed For Man's Murder

Decatur, Ill., April 18—(AP)—Two more men were charged today with murdering a Decatur mailman. Two were charged earlier.

Those accused today are Clark B. Clinton, 20, and Lewis H. Walter, 24. Herbert Phegley, 23, and Norman D. Clark previously were charged. All are in jail.

Perley T. Lupton, assistant prosecutor, said Clinton and Walter gave him oral statements that they were at the scene of the shooting of Floyd Thompson on April 2. Clark and Phegley previously made oral statements, Lupton said.

Thomson was shot after he had parked his car en route to a Masonic temple meeting.

Neighbors Finance Treatments For Paralyzed Woman

Chicago, April 18—(AP)—Thanks to her generous neighbors, a seriously-afflicted young Jackson, Miss., mother is trying to win back her health here.

She is Mrs. Jean Delk, 20, wife of Pat Delk, 24, a house painter. Delk accompanied his wife here Saturday. They left their 21-month-old son, McIlwaine, in Jackson with Mrs. Delk's parents.

Mrs. Delk, paralyzed from the waist down, is believed to have a serious nervous system affliction. It is called amyotrophic lateral sclerosis.

Doctors at the Chicago Clinic of Physical Medicine, where Mrs. Delk will receive six weeks of trial treatment, say they'll know within that period whether her condition can be improved. If the initial treatment is successful, they say, it may take a year to restore her to approximately normal health.

Mrs. Delk was stricken three years ago. Her treatment here was made possible by a fund of $1,372.40 raised by the Jackson Daily News. She and her husband were brought here as guests of the Illinois Central railroad's employees.

Million Reds Prepare To Storm South China

Legislature Will Get Billion Dollar Budget

Springfield, Ill., April 18—(AP)—Governor Stevenson tomorrow will submit a two year state budget of more than a billion dollars.

The legislature, after receiving the spending plan, will be set to start decisive actions during the last 11 weeks of the six-month session. Many big problems hinge on the money question.

This week the assembly will get bills to increase the state gasoline tax. A commission will start hearings Thursday on subversive activities.

A bill to prohibit daylight saving time in Illinois will be heard tomorrow afternoon by the House Agriculture committee.

Stevenson will personally deliver his budget message to a joint session of the legislature at noon tomorrow. WMAQ and WJJD, Chicago, will broadcast it at noon. Thirty other stations will carry it later.

In the address, the governor will outline his specific spending plans, and how the state expects to get the money to pay its bills.

Two years ago former Gov. Dwight H. Green called for a budget of $948,631,160. The legislature actually appropriated more—a record total of $1,009,000,000 for the fiscal biennium ending next June 30.

The bills to boost the gasoline tax from three to five cents, and to raise truck and car license fees, are backed by a legislative commission which has studied state road needs. Stevenson hasn't said how he feels about the problem. But state highway officials say they don't have enough money now to take care of the roads properly.

The legislature's seditious activities commission will question Robert Maynard Hutchins, University of Chicago chancellor, and other witnesses in three days of hearings starting Thursday in the state house.

The hearings are part of the commission's investigation of the university and of Roosevelt college, Chicago, and of any communist or other subversive activities at the institutions.

Prof. Bloomfield operated on the theory that a student must learn to speak a language before he can learn to write it. He helped to inaugurate the system of using a teaching team composed of a native drillmaster or "informant" who would correct or pronunciation, and an expert linguist who would teach the structure of a language and control the entire procedure.

States 'Objective' News Reporting' Will Sustain Peace

Chicago, April 18—(AP)—E. Palmer Hoyt, editor and publisher of the Denver Post, said tonight that worldwide "objective news reporting" is necessary "to sustain a peace."

"Today I feel much better relative to the possible recurrence of war," he told the Chicago Headline Club, professional chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, the national journalism fraternity.

"We have at least made positive steps. Generally, the responsible press has recognized the worthwhile attempt in the Marshall plan and the Atlantic pact to do something, something concrete, to nail down our friends and expose our enemies."

But, he said, no peace can be sure until all peoples can know what is happening in the world, and "only the breaking down of the arbitrary barriers of censorship can ever make the world a possible subject for sustained international peace."

Report Two Ships Collide Near Shoal In Singapore Area

Manila, Tuesday, April 19—(AP)—An S.O.S. picked up here said a British and an American freighter collided early today 12 miles west of Sultan Shoal near Singapore.

The distress call was intercepted by the radio corporation of America Marine station.

The ships were identified as the 4,500-ton Richmond Hill, British built and owned, and the William Tighman, Liberty ship owned by the U.S. maritime commission and chartered to the Isthmian lines.

The S.O.S. asked all ships in the vicinity to give immediate aid. There were no other details.

MISSISSIPPI PARKWAY SURVEY
MAY BE APPROVED BY CONGRESS

The Mississippi river national parkway, long a dream of scenic beauty enthusiasts in Illinois and other states along the Father of Waters, has at last taken a step toward reality. The national house has passed a bill appropriating $250,000 for a survey of the route.

You needn't start oiling your jalopy in anticipation of a tour on the highway. In fact there is a good chance that you will never travel on it. This is a big project which, if finally realized may take a generation to complete.

Surveying of the 2,500-mile route (if the senate gives its approval to the survey) will in itself be a tremendous job. This stretch extends from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico and the plan is to establish a recreation strip and scenic highway along the entire route utilizing where possible highways already in existence.

Since President Truman introduced a survey bill when he was a member of the senate, there is good reason to believe he will approve the survey if it receives final approval in congress.

The idea of this scenic route goes back more than 25 years. Before the First World War a trail was laid out by Truman Pierson, originator of the idea, Illinois has supported it through the Mississippi River Scenic Highway Association of Illinois.

Some of the historic places in Illinois that would attract tourists on the highway are the Palisades, the old Mormon city of Nauvoo, the famous Pilot Knob at Galena, the Illinois Ozarks, old Kaskaskia, Horseshoe lake, Black Hawk state park, the Rock Island arsenal and Fort Armstrong.

The Illinois legislature can assist in the enterprise by renewing the committee set up in the last session to help further the promotion work.

This is a project whose cost need not disturb taxpayers at this time, for it is a good way off and it has defense value. With the national budget at its present size, certainly this is no time for starting work on gigantic scenic enterprises. But the economic situation will change and the highway will be recommended by practical considerations.

SUBSIDY AT WHAT LEVEL?

(From The Des Moines Register)

Without attempting to analyze Secretary Brannan's new farm program in detail at this time, a good case can be made for one portion of his proposals. This is the plan to support prices of perishable farm products by direct payments to farmers rather than through purchases in the market.

There should be no mask covering this subsidy, and no shame on the part of farmers with regard to it. Since farmers always produce at full capacity there is even more moral basis, we should say, for subsidies to them in time of depression than to most other industries.

We do not deny that direct subsidies can be abused. But it is less likely to be abused—because it is above the board.

Secretary Brannan's proposals on the level of guarantees seem, at first glance to be dangerously high, however. The department of agriculture seems to be persuaded that a firm harness of production and marketing controls is necessary to go along with income support also.

The Register believes strongly that anything which weakens the competitive vigor of agriculture would be damaging, not only to farmers but to our whole economy. But we shall not pro-judge the Brannan program in this respect until we learn more about it.

J.H.S. Net Team
Gets Experience
In Quincy Match

Tennis players from Jacksonville high school banged up against a stone wall when they went to Quincy Saturday afternoon, the Crimson dropping all nine matches in singles and doubles to the Gem City team. The all-around setback was chalked up to experience by the local netmen, however, as this is the first season they have competed in tennis for a number of years.

James Waltz, coach of the newly organized net crew, believes there is a lot of talent at J.H.S., where he is striving to perfect a strong team. He has beaked several matches against other schools where tennis has been a regular sport for years.

The Jacksonville team was scheduled to meet Belleville there Monday afternoon.

Next Saturday the local squad will go to Normal, Ill., for a morning match, and in the afternoon will oppose Bloomington, rated as No. 2 tennis team in the state.

Scores of the Quincy matches follow: Bill Bower (Q) won from Chuck Ford (J), 4-6, 3-6, 6-0.

Edwin Patterson (Q) won from Charles Day (J), 6-3, 6-3.

Don Busby (Q) won from Ray Eldridge (J), 6-1, 6-0.

Dale Akers (Q) won from Dave Conlee (J), 6-0, 6-0.

Paul Meyerand (Q) won from George Pierce (J), 6-1, 6-3.

Bill Guegel (Q) won from Frank Phillips (J), 6-1, 6-1.

Doubles—Bower and Patterson (Q) won from Ford and Day, 6-2, 6-3.

Busby and Akers (Q) won from Eldridge and Pierce (J), 6-3, 6-3.

Meyer and Chanan (Q) won from Phillips and Conlee (J), 6-1, 6-3.

Wet, Dry Issue

Pittsfield, Ill., April 18—(P)—The question of prohibiting the sale of liquor in Pittsfield will not be on a special ballot in city elections tomorrow, it was learned yesterday.

A petition putting the question before voters was sponsored by the Women's Christian Temperance Union and the Ministerial Alliance. Ministers told their congregations yesterday that they had misunderstood the number of signatures needed for the petition and did not have enough to make the ballot legal.

ROGER THE LODGER

By Elizabeth R. Roberts

COPYRIGHT BY GREENBERG, PUBLISHER
DISTRIBUTED BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Mr. and Mrs. Roberts accept problems when they take in roomers to relieve the wartime housing shortage. Chief problem is Roger, a young headstrong lieutenant, who is always inviting unexpected guests to dinner. Now Roger suggests that to cement United States-Soviet relations, three Russian colonels be invited to a barbecue. But the guest list finally includes 14 people, including Roger and his colonel.

XXV
I MADE up the grocery list: broilers, macaroni, cheese, corn, buns to toast, butter, lettuce, tomatoes, cucumbers, radishes, celery and onions for the salad, coffee, strawberries and whipping cream for the ice cream Roger said he'd freeze.

We planned the party for Thursday night. First, however, Roger consulted Weather. No rain predicted. August is usually pretty dry; we laid our plans.

The morning of The Day dawned bright and hot. I got a good head start on the barbecue—when the sun went under a cloud. Grateful for the shade, I tore out to the garden and set up the folding chairs.

It was while I was hulling strawberries for the ice cream that Roger phoned to say, "So sorry. It's going to rain."

"But the weatherman said—" "Yes, I know what he said. Pressure areas have changed since then. A cold current has met up with our heat wave."

"We'll have to call off the party." "Oh, we couldn't do that," Roger exclaimed in shocked surprise. "What would the Russians think? They wouldn't understand. Anyway, they're dead set to come."

I knew who was going to win, but I said weakly, "What'll I do?" "Can't you get someone in the kitchen?"

"Not that I know of." "Well, try."

Finally, after the seventh try I got hold of a woman who, though not a caterer, was a good cook. Together we horsed the big table top up the basement stairs and onto our drop-leaf dining table. While Mrs. Sullivan put a shine on the long-since unused best flat silver, I spread the cloth.

The best china and glass were dusty from disuse. I wiped them carefully on a tea towel as I counted them out: fourteen dinner plates, fourteen salad plates, fourteen dessert plates, fourteen cups and saucers, fourteen goblets—oh, rats! I'd have to start over. Barbecue food just doesn't look or taste the same in a dining room.

I BEGAN again; got down fourteen service plates, fourteen fruit cocktail glasses and plates for the melon balls I decided we'd have to begin with. The fourteen coffee cups and saucers went back on the shelf and the after-dinner coffee tray and cups came down. There was a little matter of serving silver and platters to be polished. The goblets looked lonely on the table. I remembered that Europeans (Asiaties?) like wine with their meals. We couldn't have wine and not top off with a liqueur. Out came fourteen wine glasses and fourteen liqueur glasses.

But what about cocktails? Highballs do well enough at a picnic, but this dinner was rapidly going formal on me. I got down fourteen cocktail glasses and the shaker to be shined. By now, Mrs. Sullivan's tongue was hanging out; she was working like a maniac.

"We'll have to fry the chickens," I said. "Do you think au gratin potatoes will do?"

"Shure mike," she said. "But you'll need vegetables. You can't have Russians eating corn like a bunch of gophers."

I drove like mad to the grocer's and picked out a large cauliflower for the center of the tray, carrots, small round beets, parsley to garnish with. That reminded me of canapes. It's all right to drink a highball neat, but cocktails call—especially to Russians—for caviar and anchovies and salted nuts and appetizers of all kinds. I was hustling out of the store when I realized it was one thing for Roger to grind ice cream out of doors, quite another in a busy kitchen. I flew down to a creamery and left an order for an ice-cream cake to be delivered at 8:30 p.m.

OUR guests burst in on us a little after seven. People who travel in foreign countries know the feeling of being surrounded by babble in a strange tongue. One expects it in other countries, but sometime, if you really want to feel lost and ineffectual, try it in your own front yard.

Colonel Bolovitch bowed low over my hand, kissed it. "I'm happy to have you here in my home," I said.

"Izzatso," he said, smiling pleasantly. He made signs toward a pretty, dark-eyed little woman.

"His wife," the interpreter said. She looked eagerly around, past me, and to the living room.

"Ooooh!" she exclaimed, seeing the piano. She rushed over to it and began playing hungrily, like one who had been denied the opportunity for a long while. That took care of her.

"Colonel Kolovitch and Mrs. Kolovitch," the interpreter said, separating a middle-aged man and a leaden, chunky woman from the group at the door. I bowed. They bowed. Hearing music, they followed after Mrs. Bolovitch.

"Colonel Dolovitch and Mrs. Dolovitch," the interpreter said next. Someway, it reminded me of calling out stations on a suburban train. We bowed. Colonel Dolovitch and Mrs. Dolovitch stood their ground.

"Miss de Luce," the interpreter said, pulling a young girl forward by her hand. She smiled. "So nice to meet you," she said, in the silblants of a French woman. I judged.

The interpreter, his work begun, ushered her and the Dolovitches into the living room where Robbie was loading up the record changer with Shostakovich against the time when Mrs. Bolovitch ran down.

Ernie Pyle Killed By Jap Sniper Four Years Ago

By HAL BOYLE

New York, April 18—(P)—This is the day the little guy went under.

It happened four years ago on a faraway Pacific Isle that few remember now. The little guy raised up his head when he shouldn't. The Jap sniper saw him and fired.

He must have been an excellent soldier—that Jap. For with a single burst of his machine pistol he put three bullets into the little guy's head.

And Ernie Pyle sank back into a roadside ditch and died—the way so many men he wrote about had died.

Death came to him as kindly as it can on a battlefield. It took him all at once, with no pain, and it left him the dignity of a whole body.

Recently I saw an unpublished picture of Ernie dead. It was taken by a service photographer who crawled a mile and a half on his hands and knees to reach the scene.

Died With His Helmet On
Ernie was lying stretched out with one hand upon the other. The lids had closed gently over the blue eyes that always in life had worn a chipmunk's eagerness. His features had relaxed, and his face wore an expression of utter serenity. A thin ribbon of blood made a dark line along one thin white cheek.

I was surprised to see he had his helmet on. In Europe we never had been able to make him wear it. And it worked out as he believed. He had felt that when his time came a helmet wouldn't help him. It didn't.

Somewhat I felt better about Ernie after seeing that picture. It had been a long time since he had known happiness. And if he hadn't achieved happiness at least he had achieved rest. He had wondered what it would be like to have his spirit released "from the perpetual weight that is compounded of fear and death and dirt and noise and anguish." At last he knew.

Few people knew what an incredible effort of body and mind it took for Ernie Pyle to do the job he did in war. He weighed only 113 pounds and he suffered from anemia.

He wrote truly about himself: "Our soldiers still can hate, or glorify, or be glad, with true emotion. For them death has a pang, and victory a sweet scent. But for me war has become a flat, black depression without highlights, a revulsion of the mind and an exhaustion of the spirit."

He wrote that eight months before his death—but kept on going, growing lonelier by the day as his fame widened.

When he died, millions of soldiers who never saw him felt a sense of personal grief, as people always do when they lose someone they feel has understood them. And there were tears in the eyes of millions.

Ways to Save

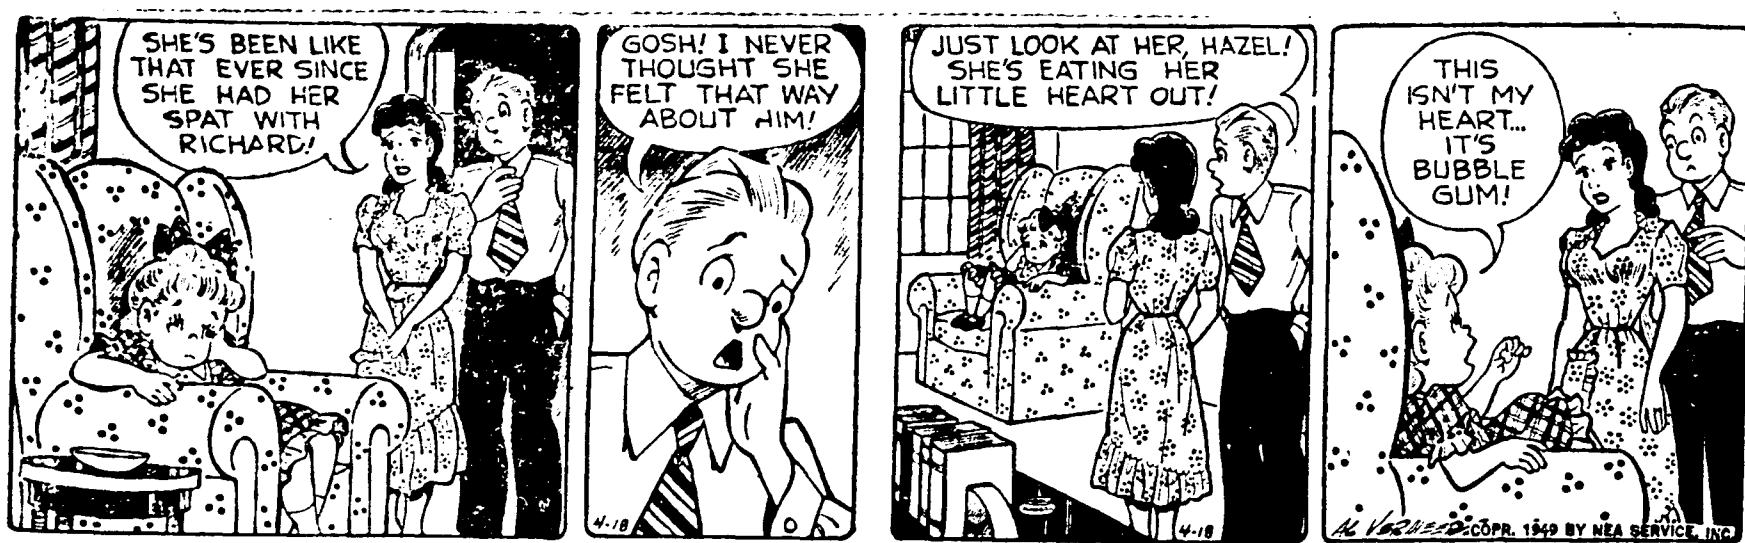

If you were a descendent of the mutineers of the "Bounty," who married native girls and settled on Pitcairn Island, your "wealth" would be turtle meat. You would save the surplus food from turtle hunts by filling coconut shells with the meat preserved in turtle fat. Your meat "savings" could be bartered for clothing, shelter or other food, just like we save and use money here.

At Jacksonville Savings & Loan Association your savings are safe, and they steadily grow because of the profit they earn, and you are not constantly tempted to use them in a feast. It's easy and pleasant to save money at Jacksonville Savings & Loan Association. Stop in and let us explain.

Reads Greetings
On 96th Birthday
Without Glasses

Jerseyville—Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, one of Jerseyville's oldest citizens, marked her ninety-sixth birthday anniversary on Easter Sunday. She was the recipient of many birthday greetings from members of her family and friends—all of which she read without the aid of glasses. She has a pair of "specs" but hardly ever puts 'em on, as she can read well without 'em and never has worn glasses.

This is the first time Mrs. Miller remembers her birthday falling on Easter Sunday. As she is confined to her bed some of the time, no formal celebration of the event was arranged.

Mrs. Miller is a native of Jerseyville being born here April 17, 1853. She is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Cyter of this city and was married to Jerome Miller of this city seventy years ago. Following the ceremony the couple went to their farm home northeast of Jerseyville where they resided until Mr. Miller's death and where Mrs. Miller has continued to make her home, her daughter Mrs. Bess Rowden and family now residing with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller were the parents of eight children, six of whom are living, namely, Clarence Miller, Mrs. Bess Rowden and Mrs. Edna Mathews of Jerseyville; Mrs. Gertrude Ryan of White Hall; Mrs. Stella Hoots of Denver and Charles Miller of Wichita, Kansas.

Burglars Ransack
Doctor's Office

The office of Dr. W. H. Newcomb in the Professional building was burglarized Saturday night or early Sunday morning. When Dr. Newcomb arrived at his office at about 8:45 o'clock Sunday morning he saw that the glass in one of the doors was broken.

The desk had been thoroughly ransacked. Missing from it were a gold watch, about $2 in stamps and $1 cash.

Sgt. Harrison Eacret and Patrolman Arthur Woods went to the Professional building and investigated the burglary. They checked other offices on both floors, finding that the burglars confined their activities to the physician's office on the first floor.

Dorothy Berghaus And Hal Baker Married

Ceremony Takes Place Sunday At
Chapin Church

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Berghaus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Berghaus of Bluffs, and Hal Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Baker of Carrollton, was solemnized in a double ring ceremony Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at St. Paul's Lutheran church of Chapin. Members of the immediate families were present.

The couple was attended by Miss Aileen Berghaus, sister of the bride, and Edward DeGeab, a friend of the groom.

A street dress of delicate blue crepe, with navy accessories, was worn by the bride. Her corsage was white gardenias and roses. She wore a double strand of pearls presented to her by the groom.

The bridesmaid wore a lilac crepe dress with white and navy accessories. Her corsage was of sweetpeas and roses.

Late in the day a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Baker was graduated from Meredosia High school in 1945, and attended business college in Jacksonville. She is now employed in the office of the National Enameling & Stamping Co., in Jacksonville.

Mr. Baker was graduated from

All Republican candidates are pledged to but one program—that of building a better Jacksonville on a sound financial basis. All are unalterably opposed to increased taxation and to the reckless expenditure of taxpayer's money.

Your city government simply cannot be operated on New Deal theories of unlimited spending and great public debt.

Plant and Cultivate SOYBEANS IN 20-INCH ROWS

A PROFITABLE SYSTEM FOR GROWING SOYBEANS

Here is a practical method of handling soybeans in 18- to 20-inch rows, three rows at a time—made possible by the rear-engine Model G with power-driven seeder and 60-inch tool bar cultivator.

Narrow rows give you these advantages:

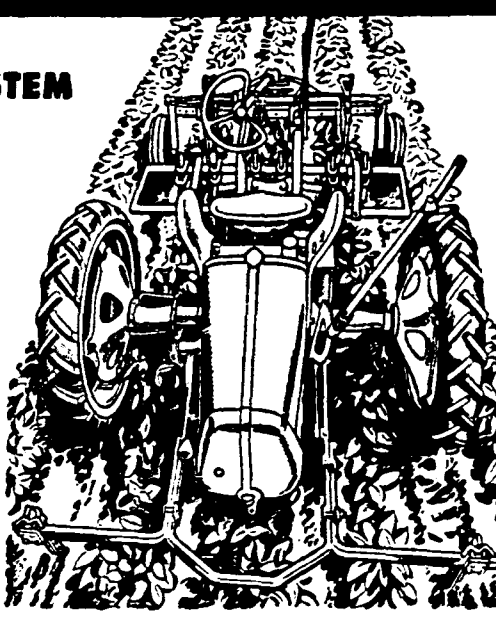

- Easier weed control—beans can be safely cultivated when small. Cultivator exactly matches planter row width.
- Faster, cleaner and easier harvesting.
- Bigger yields. (Official tests show 2 to 4 bu. per acre more.)

The extra bushels from narrow spaced rows will soon pay for the Model G seeder and cultivator used with this system. Stop in and talk it over.

Middle Meets Tail-End As Cubs, Pirates Meet Today

Chicago, April 18—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates, who finished fourth last season, the Chicago Cubs, 1948 tail-enders, will open their National League campaign today before an expected 30,000 at Wrigley Field tomorrow.

The forecast is for fair weather with temperatures in the upper 40's.

The Cubs nominated ex-Philadelphia Phil knuckle-baller, Emil "Dutch" Leonard, to hurl against Pittsburgh's Rip Sewell, always a nemesis to the Bruins.

The Probable Lineups: Pirates: Cubs, Walker, lf, Kiner, lf, Westlake, cf, Stevens, lf, Walker, rf, Bockman, 3b, Murtagh, 2b, McCullough, c, Sewell, p.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, April 18—(AP)—Hog values showed a steady 50 cents lower trend today. Cattle were unevenly firm to 50 cents less, vealers were down $1.00 to $2.00, and sheep ruled steady throughout.

Most good and choice butcher hogs sold from $17.00 to $19.50, the practical top, but a short load managed to find $19.60. Sows took $14.00 to $17.00.

A load of choice steers topped at $27.50, other choice loads going at $26.25 to $27.00. Medium to low choice kinds brought $22.50 to $26.00.

Choice heifers topped at $26.50, good fed kinds getting $24.00 to $25.50. Beef cows topped at $21.00, weighty sausage bulls practically at $22.50, and vealers at $28.00. Choice yearlings brought $26.00 in the feeder division.

Choice Wyoming fed woolled lambs took the top of $29.50, and most good and choice offerings merited $28.50 to $29.50. Good and choice shorn lambs brought $27.00 to $27.50. Woolled ewes topped at $14.50, clipped kinds at $12.50.

Included in salable receipts were 6,650 hogs, 12,000 cattle, 500 calves, and 1,000 sheep.

WHEAT PRICES LAG; CASH GRAIN RECEIPTS HIGH IN NORTHWEST

Chicago, April 18—(AP)—May wheat met scattered selling pressure today and dropped more than a cent, at times on the board of trade. Other grain contracts, lower at the start, staged a mild rally to close with minor price changes.

Selling in May wheat reflected fairly heavy arrivals of the cash grain in the northwest, as well as trade reports of a further reduction in the cash wheat price at major markets. The government again asked for offers for shipment through April.

Corn did a little better than other grains. Receipts today totaled 102 cars, which were not considered large for Monday. Wet weather in the midwest was not expected to speed up shipments.

Receipts were: Wheat 9 cars, corn 102, oats 71 and sorghams 12. Wheat closed $1.13 lower, May $2.21-$2.22, corn was unchanged to higher, May $1.33-1/2, oats were unchanged to 1/2 lower, May $1.21, soybeans were 1-1/2 lower, May $22.21-1/2, and land was unchanged to 5 cents a hundred pounds lower, May $11.22.

Truman Among Crowd That Sees Senators Edge Athletics 3 To 2

Washington, April 18—(AP)—President Truman, a veteran in these parts, and Clyde Vollmer, a rookie, combined today to get the 1949 American League baseball season off to a rousing start here.

Vollmer came through with a single with the bases loaded in the ninth inning to give the Washington Senators an uphill, surprising 3-2 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics.

The A's, with Dick Fowler performing most effectively on the mound, had smooth sailing to that point. They had established a 20-0 lead in the second. Although Washington had picked up a run in the fourth, Fowler was in such complete command that the Senators' cause seemed hopeless.

But in the ninth an amazing thing happened. Manager Joe Kuhel sent in two pinch-hitters, and each came through with a double. First Sherry Robertson, and then Eddie Stewart. Stewart's hit tied it up.

Gil Coan, who had scored Washington's first run, kept the rabbit foot working. He laid down a bunt that trickled down the third base line.

Sam Dente then was purposely walked to fill the bases. Buddy Lewis fouled out to Henry Majeski. Vollmer, late of the Syracuse International league chiefs, then collected his game-winning base knock.

In addition to throwing out the first ball, the President performed another valuable service today. A skilled baseball guesser, Mr. Truman last year guessed that the Yankees would win, 8 to 4. They did, 12 to 4.

Today Mr. Truman picked Washington, 5 to 4, a neck-sticking-out feat seeing as how the Senators had lost five opening games in a row.

Indiana Nine Whips E. Illinois

Evansville, Ind., April 18—(AP)—Evansville College rapped out a 7-5 college baseball victory over Eastern Illinois today behind the 11-hit pitching of Andy Collins.

Despite the 11 hits, Collins was in serious trouble only in the third when a triple play off the bat of pinch hitter Earl Denoche set up three runs.

Three Evansville batters, Bob Kohlmeier, Marv Stofft and Joe Unfried, had triples. Ray Demoulin was the losing pitcher.

Eastern Ill. 010 300 100-5 11 4 Evansville 012 030 100-7 8 3 Demoulin, Hilligoss (6) and Alexander, Gray (4); Collins and Crouch, H. Haffele (5).

Hartung Accepts Pitching Role; He Could Salvage Giant's Shaky Staff

By Joe King
NEA Special Correspondent
New York—(NEA)—Clint Hartung, despite the many adverse comments about his ability along that line, is the great white hope to salvage the Giants' pitching staff.

Jansen is steady as usual. Jones has gone back to his erratic manners of 1947. Kennedy looks just the same.

Hartung, then, is the salvation, barring trades, of the National Exhibition Co. If the Giant corporation completes trades that are in the making, Clint may not be so vital but still will be important.

Browns Inaugurate Season Today, Meet Indians At Home

St. Louis, April 18—(AP)—The world champion Cleveland Indians and the St. Louis Browns open their 1949 schedule tomorrow at Sportsman's Park, and tribe manager Lou Boudreau has named Bob Feller to pitch his eighth season opener.

Browns officials expected a crowd of some 15,000, unless the weather interferes. Occasional showers were forecast for late afternoon with the temperature expected to be in the upper 50's.

Feller will be opposed by Ned Garver. Last year Feller won 19 and lost 15, while Garver had a 7-11 record.

Probable starting lineup: St. Louis: Cleveland, 3b, Mitchell, lf, Zarilla, lf, Feller, p, Boudreau, ss, Graham, 1b, Koges, rf, Lehnner, cf, Lollar, c, Pellagrini, ss, Garver, p.

Starting time: 2:30 p.m. (CST).

Browns File Suit To Evict Cards From Sportsman's

St. Louis, April 18—(AP)—The St. Louis Browns filed suit today to evict the Cardinals from Sportsman's Park, but attorneys predicted legal delays would assure the National league club of a home throughout the 1949 baseball season.

The eviction action plus a request for $222,500 damages is not expected to go to trial before September. Fred M. Saign, who recently bought the Cardinal club, expressed confidence his team will still be the Browns' tenant after the court battle ends.

In going to court, the Browns followed up their ultimatum to the Cardinals in February to vacate the park property. The park is owned by the Browns but under a leasing arrangement it has been used by the Cardinals since 1920.

Blueboy Nine Marks Win Over Scott Field Club Here Monday P.M.

The Illinois College Blueboy nine of six Illinois College runs in this battle the cold weather and Scott Field Flyers for seven innings on Russell Field yesterday afternoon and came out of the bout blue from the cold but with one more scalp representing a 12-8 win hanging from their belts.

Ken Gill, previously untied hurler on Joe Brooks mound corps, took the hill in the opening innings. The soldiers' leafoff man doubled to open the first inning. Gill eased up and walked the next hitter. A single, followed by two bobbies on the IC infield, gave the Scott Field force two runs.

Lasley Hits Homer
The Blueboys were quick to gain vengeance on the Flyers for drawing first blood. Paul Lasley slammed out a four-bagger to open the IC offensive in their half of the first inning. Ten batters combined three errors, a walk and two more hits for a total of 12 runs.

Stranahan, Locke Clash In 18-Hole Playoff Today

Virginia Beach, Va., April 18—(AP)—Amateur Frank Stranahan walked with a limp today as he teed off against professional Bobby Locke in an 18-hole playoff for the Cavalier Specialists golf tournament championship.

The Toledo, O., star injured his left foot in one of yesterday's rounds when he slipped and fell on a hillside. He revealed his foot was swollen last night.

Stranahan said he did not know how the injury would affect his game, but it was not regarded as serious.

Stranahan and Locke finished the regulation 54-hole tournament yesterday in 201 strokes. Six under par.

The South African pro played the most consistent golf throughout the tournament. After carding a 64 Friday, he got a 68 yesterday morning. And 66 in the afternoon. Stranahan after the first 18 holes with a 64, slipped to a 72 in yesterday's pre-lunch round, and came back with an afternoon 65.

Regardless of who is today's victor, Locke is certain to be a winner financially. He got $1,500 for finishing first among the 19 professionals competing and collects 50 per cent of today's gate receipts.

Second and third place money yesterday was divided by Cary Midgley of Memphis, Tenn., and Jim Ferrier of San Francisco. They tied with 202's. Each collected $900.

For Mayor

JOHN S. WRIGHT

Your vote for John S. Wright for mayor of Jacksonville will be a vote for good government in Jacksonville. John S. Wright is a young man qualified by training and experience and sincerely interested in government on the local level. He lives at 212 Sandusky street with his wife and three sons. He owns his own home and is a taxpayer. Mr. Wright is a World War II veteran who saw overseas service.

The people of Jacksonville have been fully informed by this candidate as to his stand on issues of public interest. He has a program and it is no secret. If he is elected, you will see this program put to work.

According to Mr. Wright, the people have a right to demand proper care of their streets when they are paying for the personnel and equipment to do the job. He also thinks that the city utilities are big business and should be so run. Candidate Wright also points out the health menace to each man, woman, and child caused by the absence of adequate milk ordinances and the lack of any systematic garbage disposal service in the community. The lack of such service is not only inconvenient but it encourages rats and flies to multiply and in general makes for insanitary conditions.

If you would like to help make Jacksonville a better place to live, do something about it—help elect John S. Wright for mayor and he will help you find an answer to these problems.

MORGAN TO CALIFORNIA—1849

'Both Parties . . . Satisfactorily Disappointed'

By Cecil Tendick

Southeastern Colorado is beautiful in July, so beautiful that even unsuccessful gold seekers relished the mountains and skies, valleys and streams.

The group did a little exploring before heading back to their wagons and comrades.

Mr. Rees wrote on Wednesday, July 11:

"Warm and pleasant. After breakfasting on good roast venison, I took a walk. The cake was baked by the fire (wood round a stick) the Role was called and we proceeded on to examine the road. After climbing the mountain and crossing over a bank of snow at least three feet deep we traveled through a grove of very tall spruce a distance of two miles. Here we came to the top of the Mountain where the good spring ran out from beneath a bed of snow.

"At this place the guide and one half of the committee took down the mountain in a different direction to try to find a better route for the road to ascend. They finally got lost.

"We saw no more of them until next morning.

Attempt To Locate New Mountain Route

"The company all passed on for the purpose of going to camps, so that they could unpack their animals. The balance of the committee fell behind to examine the best route for the wagons to ascend the mountain. After winding around some time we finally found a way that we agreed that wagons probably could be got up if Labour enough was done.

"About 1 o'clock, we descended to the foot of the mountain. Here we laid down and rested one hour and all of them to a bit of grub, except myself. I had been taken some three hours before with the dysentery and felt very unwell.

"After resting we started on. We traveled about three miles. We discovered something like unto an old fortification some two hundred yards off to the left of the road. We agreed to go out and look at it. When we got to it we found it to be a wall of stone.

"We supposed the highest place was probably fifty feet from the level of the Earth. It was some four feet thick at its base and gradually tapered up to a sharp at the top. It was about 40 yards from the foot of a bluff and appeared to be as strait as a line could have been drawn and probably some 4 or 500 yards in length.

A Story of Terror And Laughs

"After satisfying our curiosity myself and a Mr. Armstrong, who was on horseback, started on thinking that our comrades were coming on. We traveled on slowly, thinking they would come up a short time.

"After we had started on their came up a heavy shower. They stopped under a Cedar Tree to keep from getting wet. After they had got out in the road they happened to look back and they discovered a party that appeared to be in pursuit of them, but were so far off that they were unable to tell how many or who they were. So they increased their gait, hoping to overtake us. So they would cast a wishful eye ahead and then with Terror would turn and look back at their Enemy.

"So in this way they passed off some two miles and could not overtake us, so at last they found that they would be overtaken before they could get into camps. As it so happened they had the advantage of a very high Rocky hill that was thickly covered over with cedar trees that afforded them an Excellent Shelter. They succeeded in gaining the top of the hill before their Enemies came up.

Improve Plans For The Battle

"They had discovered that their was Seven of their Enemy. After gaining the top of the hill and getting their wind they concluded to sell their lives as dear as possible. One of them had a double Barrel shotgun and the other one had a good Rifle and Pistol. So they concluded that they were good for four of them and that they could load and fire the Second time before they could gain the top of the hill. So they fancied that they could Probably kill all of them.

"About that time they heard them talking in English. So they concluded that their was some Americans among them. At any rate, one of them peeped from behind this breastworks and discovered that there was one negro in the crowd that they were trying to send him in front up the hill. So they concluded to hall them and know their business before they got too close. So they did.

"They answered and said they thought that they were on the pursuit of two Indians and asked our men what maid them Run from them. They said that they thought that it was Indians. So both parties were very Satisfactorily disappointed. After talking awhile Each party returned to their camps. The party that was on pursuit of our men was a company of Packers from Santa Fe going by way of Salt Lake to California. One man came into camps and Reported. There was a considerable Laugh. They said it was too true to make a joke of.

"When I got into camps I found one of my messmates very sick. The guide and his company did not get in until the next morning. Rained in the Evening, very disagreeable lodging."

I am married and reside at 1302 South Main with my wife and two children.

For the past few years, except for the war period, I have been following the plumbing trade. During my years in service with the United States Navy, I was at first attached to the naval intelligence; later, because of my civilian background, I was transferred to a comparatively new organization of the Navy, pertaining to the manufacturing and processing, in the field of action, compressed gases such as: breathing oxygen and carbon-dioxide, being used by the Naval Air Force.

I attended the local grade school and 3 years at the Jacksonville High school, then transferring to the Harrison, Stone, Jackson Junior College in the state of Mississippi where I continued my education. At the end of that period, I continued with one year at Hardin Brown's Business College in this city.

I shall not attempt to outline the various duties of the office of city clerk but shall mention the fact that I realize that they are purely clerical duties and is in no way concerned with legislative or policy which of course you have your duly elected mayor and aldermen for that purpose.

In conclusion I would be most happy to have the opportunity to serve you, the citizens of Jacksonville, in the capacity of your city clerk.
